

Rubric for Assignment #5 – Major Project – Inquiry Based Exploratory

Criteria	Exceeding Expectations	Meeting Expectations	Expectations Developing
The question posed was answered and reflected deep thought in terms of what was considered.	The project reflected a very thorough answer to the inquiry question posed and exhibited a high degree of deep thought. 12.5	The project reflected a thorough answer to the inquiry question posed and exhibited a modest degree of deep thought. 11.5	The project reflected a shallow answer to the inquiry question posed and exhibited a low degree of deep thought. 8
The quality of the work reflected deep and intense research that considered many diverse sources of information.	Research information seen in the project reflected much effort which culminated in a superior list of varied sources. 15	Research information seen in the project reflected a modest effort which culminated in a varied list of sources. 14	Research information seen reflected little effort and resulted in a fairly homogenous list of sources. 10
Graphics, video, audio or other forms of media were readily seen adding to the understanding of the viewer.	Media used was exemplary and visually/aurally added much value to the project in terms of what the viewer experienced. 7.5	Media used was fully acceptable and visually/aurally added value to the project in terms of what the viewer experienced. 6	Media use was very weak and did not add much value in terms of what the viewer experienced. 4
One of the Guiding Questions for the course was addressed/discussed.	Critical challenge questions was fully addressed/discussed. 2.5	Critical challenge question was addressed/discussed. 2	Critical challenge question was not addressed nor discussed. 1
Required number of sources included and referenced in APA v.6	More than ten sources of information were supplied in the correct format and referenced within the project and all were in APA v.6 format. 2.5	Ten sources of information were supplied in the correct format and were referenced within the project. There were minor APA formatting errors. 2	Less than ten sources of information were supplied in the correct format and referenced within the project and there were many APA formatting errors. 1

Total: /40